

Amundsen's Way

The Race to the South Pole

Joanna Grochowicz

A forgotten hero. Disregarded and even maligned, Roald Amundsen was nonetheless the most accomplished polar explorer of the age, whose unorthodox methods were generations ahead of his time. Now is the time to tell this gripping tale of courage, determination and ruthlessness in the race to claim the South Pole

Norwegian explorer Roald Amundsen is determined to be first to reach the southernmost point on the globe. Haunted by the prospect of his rival, Captain Scott, scooping the prize, in this thrilling tale based on true events Amundsen pushes himself and his men beyond the bounds of human experience and ever deeper into the Antarctic unknown, where penetrating cold and uncharted obstacles reign supreme.

From the author of the highly acclaimed Into the White comes another electrifying adventure story full of life-threatening challenges, deception, failures and triumphs.

Praise for Into the White:

'Thrilling and chilling.' The Herald Sun

'Outstanding writing' Children's Book Council of Australia

'An astonishing work of narrative non-fiction' The Scotsman

'Meticulously researched, compellingly told.' Radio New Zealand National

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Joanna Grochowicz is the author of the acclaimed 2017 novel Into the White. By fusing the real and the imagined in her stories of early Antarctic exploration, she reveals the human aspirations and tragedies that have shaped our understanding of what remains an utterly inhuman place. As an Antarctic writer and communicator, Joanna believes that engaging with Antarctic history encourages a deeper connection with a globally significant continent that few will ever visit.

PUBLICATION DATE: 6 May 2019 IMPRINT: A&U Children's RRP: $16.99

CATEGORY: Children's ISBN: 9781760637668 EXTENT: 320pp AGES: 10-14

CONTACT: Sophie Eaton E: sophiee@allenandunwin.com T: (02) 8425 0187

WE ASK THAT NO ARTICLE OR REVIEW APPEAR BEFORE PUBLICATION DATE WITHOUT PRIOR PERMISSION FROM ALLEN & UNWIN