Book Week 2024

Our Book Week is taking place from Monday 4th March. This year our celebrations will feature a virtual reality experience for all children, a whole school 'Book Bake-off' competition and our famous 'Book Wagon' book sale. We would love as many children as possible to enter the competition and so the information is attached to this week's newsletter.

We've also included a poster of the special book sale which we hold annually courtesy of Bronnie and Bob from 'Bookwagon'. These books will be of fantastic quality, come highly recommended and will be discounted (most titles will be £6.00). The school also receives a generous commission from every sale. Children will be able to purchase books during the day if they bring in money but we would love you to come and see the Bake off entries and browse the sale at the end of the day.

Other book week plans will come out to you next week as they are finalised!

Online safety talk

You will have received a ParentMail invitation to join an online safety talk online with PC Chris Jones, the West Oxfordshire School and Youth support officer with Thames Valley Police. Chris will deliver the online briefing session for parents on Wednesday 6th March 2024, from 6:00 – 7:00pm. In the session he will talk generally about current local issues, but the main focus will be around online safety and social media. There will be an opportunity for questions at the end. The session is also open to parents from Enstone and Great Tew primary schools.

Easter celebrations

At the end of this term, we shall enjoy our annual Easter celebrations. Traditionally we ask you to -

- Help your child to make an easter bonnet to be brought into school during the final week of term to wear on a procession around the village on Thursday 28th March 2024
- Donate some small chocolate eggs for the easter Egg Hunt (please send to the office)

In addition this year, we would like to support the Hook Norton Food Bank which has been set up to support local families. We plan to present a collection of Easter treats at our church service on the final day of term. There will be a collection box in the entrance hall for any donation you might like to make.
